AN HEIR TO MANY MILLIONS

Claims To Be A Brother of Finlay Clark.

HE WILL PUT IN HIS CAIM

Clark Died Twenty Years Ago and Was Worth Twenty-Five Million Dollars.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Trenton, N. J. Oct. 20.—A rubber worker here claims to be a brother of Finlay Clark, the Australian millionaire who died twenty years ago. He will put in a claim for his share of the twenty-five million that Clark left at the time of his death.

YOUNG REPUBLICAN LEAGUE.

Put the Pencil Pushers Out of the Show at Raleigh.

Delegate Bridges returned from Raleigh this morning, where he went to attend the organization of the Young Republican League. R. D. Douglas was the other delegate from Guilford. Representation was on the same basis as representation in the legislature, so that Guilford was allowed two delegates.

Temporary Chairman Bailey, of his own motion, excluded representatives of the press from the hall. Many of the delegates did not approve of this course.

A warm fight ensued when the league came to the election of a permanent chairman.

Hall, of Raleigh, and Lybrook, of Winston, were the opposing candidates. Guilford voted for Hall. He was elected.

The organization has, as its primary object, the forcing of recognition of worthy young men of the party. The league will become an integral part of the party machinery. While primarily a young man's organization, older republicans are admited to membership also.

Mr. Bridges says the parade yesterday was a rather poor affair, though the attendance at the fair is large.

Blue Mountain Joe and John Robison are adding to the festivities of the weather.

Picked Up His Severed Arm.

Greenwich, Conn., Oct. 19. — John Carrol, a tramp, jumped from a freight train at Coscob last night and landed on the picket fence between the tracks. In trying to save himself he fell to the ground and his left arm was cut off below the elbow. He picked up the severed limb and walked to the station a few feet distance where he laid it on the platform and asked the station master for a drink. He was taken to the Stamford hospital.

Will Preach as Usual.

Rev. Livingston Johnson announced on Sunday that he would be absent on next Sunday. He learns that he will return on Saturday and will therefore preach as usual on Sunday. He leaves today for Pedee association.

TRUSTS ARE PUSHING HIM.

McCook is Now Anxious for a Seat in the Cabinet.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washingtou, Oct. 20.—Col. John McCook, of New York, had a long conference with present McKinley yesterday. The trusts and corporations are pushing him for the Attorney-Generalship. President McKinley said that he would be willing. McCook is now anxious to enter the Cabinet. It is thought the Conference was in regard to the possible appointment of McCook.

HIGH POINT'S NEW STORE.

The Library's Growth. Maj. Wadlington's Lecture.

TELEGRAM BUREAU,
HIGH POINT, N. C., Oct. 20, '97.

The Citizen thinks that the telephonic connection between Greensboro and High Point, advocated by the Telegram, would be a paying investment.

Mrs. Mary E. Cartland, state president of the W. C. T. U., is in Indianapolis attending the Quingenniel conference of the American Friends. Before returning Mrs. Cartland will attend the worlds W. C. T. U. Convention at Toronto and the national W. C. T. U. convention at Buffalo, N. Y.

Mrs. A. A. Barker and wife will celebrate their golden wedding by a family reunion tomorrow.

Mr. G. S. Bradshaw came up from Greensboro this morning.

High Point is well represented at the State Fair. A party left for Raleigh this morning composed of Miss Bertha Snow and Messrs. E.A. Snow, W. H. Ragan, E. D. Steele, A. V. Sapp, J. L. Sechrest and E. A. Bencini.

Hon. Thos. Settle, of Greensboro, was in the city yesterday. He was reticent as to Mr. Charles successor in the post-office. We warn the honorable ex-statesman that he had better be careful who tries to fill Mr. Charles place if he wishes to retain his popularity in High Point. It will take a good man.

One by one the number of books in the Graded School Library is increasing. On the 29th inst. the pupils of the eight and ninth grades intend giving a Library Reception, when the friends of the school together with any donations of books or money they may wish to give will be received. An attractive mvsical program will be rendered and refreshments served free.

The Citizen this afternoon in the following words informs the public generally of a glorious opportunity:

Our people will probably have one opportunity of a life time next Thursday night to hear Major William Talking Wadlington, of Caswell county, deliver his famous lecture "Beyond the Blue Ridge Lies Caswell."

The major's friends have prevailed upon him with such persistency that he couldn't resist their entreaties and has consented to lecture either on the above subject or something equally as interesting.

Our city is to have a new grocery store before many days. The projectors of this enterprise are leading business men in High Point and they know what they are about.

Sheriff Hoskins and W. P. Ragan of Greensboro, are in the city.

Rev. N. R. Richardson preached before the colored graded school this morning at 11 o'clock.

Program For Scalchi Concert.

The very best attraction, possibly, that will come to Greensboro this season, will be the Scalchi concert at G. F. College chapel next Saturday night. We present below the program for this concert, so that you may get a faint idea of what is in store for you:

LIEUT. RANDALL WILL COMMAND

Fire Raging in New York—Firemen Hurt—English Papers Publish Sympathetic Articles on Pullman.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 20.—The secretary of war issued an order today creating a military reservation in that part of Alaska lying within a radius of fifty miles of St. Michaels. The purpose is to confer upon Lieutenant-Colonel Randall the necessary authority to preserve order and protect property in that section of country, both of which it is believed will be jeopardized by the large numbers of lawless characters gathering at the mouth of the Yukon.

Drug Establishment Burned.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM

New York, Oct. 20—A big fire is raging at No. 3 Platt street, one of the largest drug concerns in the city. Three firemen are reported to have been taken out in a dying condition. Other large drug firms are treatened.

Views of English Papers.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

London, Oct. 20—Most of the English papers today publish sympathetic articles on the death of George M. Pullman.

JUST ANY OLD CANDIDATE.

Says Presdent McKinley in the Mayoralty Fight.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 20.—Influence has been brought to bear upon President McKinley to secure his endorsement of General Tracy for mayor of New York, but without avail. The president is keeping aloof from the local fight and steadfastly refuses to express any preference with reference to the candidates in the field.

OUGHT TO BE OHIO POPULISTS.

Members of Unterhaus Kick and Cuff.

By Cable to THE TELEGRAM.

Vienna, Oct. 20. — Members of the Unterhaus indulged in a free fight today, after a stormy attempt to organize the forthcoming meeting. The president was finally obliged to order an adjournment.

Luetgert's Jury Still Hung.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 20, 9:30. — Judge Tuthill has taken his seat upon the bench. The jury is still out. The twelve men stand four for acquittal, and eight for conviction.

Enormous Crowd Gathered.

Chicago, 11:30.—Enormous crowds surround the Courthouse for blocks each way. It has rapidly increased since 9:30 o'clock. The long delay of the jury in returning a verdict has caused the appearance of a large crop of bribery rumors.

Too Much White Spirits.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 20. — The Great White Spirits Company's distillery has been petitioned into insolvency in Middlesex county court.

Stole the Gavel.

By wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 20.—Relic hunters are looting the court room in which Luetgert's trial was held. Judge Tuthill's gavel has been stolen.

GOOD MEN BEHIND IT.

The Fertilizer Factory at Winston a Sure Thing.

In the call for a stockholders' meeting of the Southern Chemical Company, to be held in the chamber of commerce rooms, October 21st, at 11 a. m., names of the following prominent business men appear:

F. H. Fries, P. H. Hanes & Co., R. J. Reynolds, H. B. Battle, Brown, Rodgers & Co., R. H. Ricks, J. A. Gray, W. T. Brown, T. H. Battle, W. A. B. Blair, J. H. Ruffin, T. W. Huske.

This list of subscribers together with several other reliable business men who are interested is a sufficient guarantee to the most skeptical that the big fertilizer factory will be built and in operation in the very near future. — Winston Journal.

WHEN THE IVY IS CLINGING.

The House Did Not Move Itself. Dropped His Watermelon.

Things look more like moving down in the meadow. About noon, one of the houses that not long since was in all probalility the scene of revelry by night, with razors flying in the air and the dusky denizens of the meadow dens in merry glee and joyous exuberance of spirits—meadow spirits—carvde little mementoes upon each other regardless of sex, has been pulled up and rolled away from past memories.

The man who had the contract to move this house started on his way rejoicing with it to its destination near Bennett College, in the southeastern part of town. But when he got to East Washington street he "dropped his watermelon," so to speak as it were. That is to say the house stands square in the middle of East Washington street, between Mr. Lindheim's and Mr. Dorsett's, with no signs whatever of activity or intention to "move on." Possibly it might have been left there to beautify that part of the street or to facilitate traffic.

When "the green grass grows all round" it and the ivy fastens its clinging tendrils to its sides it would be vandalism to move it again.

Music Lovers.

Greensboro is proud of its reputation as a music loving community; a community that has been educated to discriminate between good music and trash and today will not be content with anything that is not of the best quality. The concert to be given on Saturday night next, in the large auditorum of the Greensboro Female College by Mme. Sofia Scalchi, the empress of contraltos and her associate artists, lifts us to the pinnacle of our ambition, for in this company we have at once an array of artists second to none in the entire world.

Had there been any really Grand Opera Company in New York this season we would certainly not have had an opportunity of hearing the famous Scalchi within four hundred miles of Greensboro. It is truly written that "All things work together for good."

A CONTRAST.

Our dispatches yesterday gave an account of the death of George Pullman. Editorially we noticed the death of Charles A. Dana, which occurred on Sunday. Thus within a few days have passed from the stage two men who were excellent representatives of two classes that America produces more largely than any other nation:the class of men that start with nothing and becomes eminent for intellect and the class that starts with nothing and becomes eminent for wealth.

Each of these men was a power in his own way. Neither was scrupulous in the uses to which that power was put. Which had the greater power? Dana, undoubtedly. When death came to the solitary millionaire his power, as individual, was ended. Not so with Dana; his impress remains.

Did the world have any real respect for George Pullman? None whatever. It showed the obsequious deference always shown the man who has something to give; in its heart it despised him—despised him because he took all and gave little. There issafety in the knowledge that, finally ability is rewarded above money.

The memory of Pullman will know no tomorrows. The world and mankind owe him little. It forgets readily the man to whom it owes much; the man to whom it owes nothing it forgets that it ever has forgotten. The millions of Pullman will be remembered while they last, but not Pullman.

It is well to note that even in America ideas are ranked above Pullman cars. Pullman cars are very good things; if Pullman could not make ideas he did well to make cars. Each of these men contributed in a way to the advancement of his age. Let due credit be given to each. Pullman made cars; Dana made history. Pullman made millions; Dana made a modest living. Pullman represented the aristocracy of money; Dana represented the aristocracy of intellect. Which will triumph, by and by?

THERE is a proposition under consideration to introduce the German starling into this country to drive out the English sparrow but it is to be hoped before this step is taken careful investigation will be made with a view to ascertaining whether or not the starling partakes of the characteristics of the Hohenzollern dynasty. Queen Vic is bad enough but Emperor William would be worse.

THE feelings of the Spanish commander when the escape of Miss Cisneros was discovered, were nothing as compared to those of the Yellow Kid when she took a seat directly in front of him in the Journal.

IT is quite within the range of the possible that some of those pledges Ohio legislators are giving not to vote for a millionaire will be redeemed by Mr. Hanna.

MR. Wilson, of the Hayseeder may with justice assert that he is not the only dog in the manger.

IT is reliably reported that General Blanco is a much lessimaginative writer than General Weyler.

THERE is one thing, at least, concerning which the Populist organ and the Populist orator is not pessimistic—his own prowess. He never utters a sentence or pens a line that does not deal a knock-out blow to some of the enemy.

SPENCER Blackburn owes the public an explanation of the conspiciousness of his absence from the youthful powwow down in the realm of Keeper Burns last night.

THE New York Journal will please take note that the stock of carrier pigeons being now some time exhausted, Andree would appreciate a small piece of rescue.

WHY is it that a requisition has not been issued against the eloquence of Thomas B. Reed to come over into Gotham and help the cause along?

MRS. Langtry showed great kindness of heart by allowing her ornamental spouse pocket change after he had gotten out of style.

IS it possible that the Hayseeder is storing its heat against the day of a possible reconciliation?

JOSHUA SIMPKINS LAST NIGHT.

Some Things That Were Quite Superfluous.

It is not possible to either approve or condemn as a whole Joshua Simpkins as played at the Academy last night. Some parts of it were good, the fault of the player not of the piece however.

The piece itself is made up of cheap and tawdry "sensation," much nonsensical horse play, that is out of place anywhere except in a two-for a quarter show, and some genuine comedy. The comedy in fact was the only genuine thing about it and some of the comedy was such only by a good long stretch of courtesy. The plot of the play was "old, very old" and has done service on the stage and in the yellow-back novel from time immemorial.

Joshua and Hezekiah were good but their support was of the poorest. They undoubtedly deserve a better play. Speaking of comedy it may be said parenthically, that Mr. Arnold Blaine's tragedy was one of the most comical parts of the play. It may be very truthfully said of him that he works hard enough though; there is no room for doubt that he means to be tragic at all hazards.

The orchestra is excellent; quite as good as could be expected. Worse music may be heard in city theatres. It too deserves a better company.

It is difficult to see what place much of last night's performance has upon a stage before an average audience. Some of the rough-and-tumble, bust-him-in-the-face business was so manifestly thrown in for its own sake that it fell coolly even on the ever responsive gallery. A buffoon standing on his head, a young lady sliding down a seesaw, one actor kicking another in the face may be alright in a circus or medicine show, but have no place on a legitimate stage.

There were concessions to the gutter and some down right vulgarity that were all the more inexcusable because they did not belong in the play. They were vulgar merely, not funny, and their vulgarity was the only recommendation. They were thrown in to fill up. They should be thrown out.

The house was crowded, showing that the patronage is sufficient here to warrant the bringing on of some really good companies. So far as could be judged the audience was well pleased with the play, barring the shady parts noted above.

To Our City Subscribers.

If you have subscribed for THE TELEGRAM and don't get it, or receive it irregular, please let us know. Send us word, drop us a postal, phone or call at the office and inform us of the fact. We will be sorry for the mistake having occurred and will try to remedy it.

Judge Pryor, in New York, and Judge Gaynor, in Brooklyn, rendered decisions refusing the application of the Platt Republicans for a mandamus compelling the New York police commissioners to remove the name of Seth Low and other candidates on the Citizens' Union ticket from the official ballot.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervogs system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it, Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

NORTH CAROLINA, Guilford County. } In the Sup'r Court.

C. M. Benninghaus
vs.
Life Ins. Co. of Va., R. M. Douglas, Trustee, and Maria E. Day, et al.

By virtue of a judgment order entered in the said Superior Court at the June special term, 1896, thereof in the above entitled action and of another order made by said court at its August term, 1897., the undersigned Commissioner will sell for cash to the highest bidder at public auction, at the Court House door in Greensboro, North Carolina, on Monday, the 1st day of November 1897.

at 12 o'clock midday, or as soon thereafter as may be, the following described parcel of land situated in Morehead township, Guilford county and State of North Carolina, and described as follows, to wit:

Beginning at an iron stake in the edge of the main road leading through Warnersville to Asheboro, on the west side of said road, thence north 81½ deg. west 17 poles 4 links to an iron stake; thence north 17½ deg. east 4 poles to an iron stake; thence south 81½ deg. east 17 poles 4 links to an iron stake, in edge of said road; thence south 17½ degrees west with said road 4 poles to the beginning; being bounded on the south by Dorcas Scott's land; west by Evaline Jones; north by Gracie Waddy; east by Asheboro road; being lot conveyed to W. A. Day by Gracie Waddy by deed dated August 28th, 1889, recorded in book 84, page 659.

This sale will be made subject to the approval of the Court, and will be immediately reported to the Court for confirmation.

This 1st day of Oct. 1897.

R. D. DOUGLAS, Commissioner.

Administrator's Notice and Sale.

Having qualified as administrator of T. C. Lamb, deceased, late of Guilford county, N. C., before Ed. L. Ragan, clerk of the superior court of said county, I hereby notify all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment; and all persons having claims against said estate to present the same to me duly authenticated on or before the 10th day of September, 1898, or this notice will be plead in bar of their recovery.

This is also to give notice that at the late residence of said deceased in said county, I shall sell for cash to the highest bidder, on Thursday, the 30th day of September, 1897, the personal property of said estate, consisting of two mules, one horse, ten head of hogs, lot of wheat, lot of oats, farming and smith tools and other articles, too numerous to mention.

This 7th day of September, 1897.

The Secretary of State of New York has decided that the name of the United Democracy's candidate for chief judge of the court of appeals must be printed on the official ballots throughout the entire state.

The United States monetary commissioners have received no official information regarding the action taken by the British cabinet respecting their proposal in the interest of bimetallism, but private advices convince them that the cabinet has dealt a death-blow to their mission.

LANGTRY GETS AN ALLOWANCE.

Jersey Lily Gave Her Husband Money Regularly.

London, Oct. 19.—Sir George Lewis, counsel for Mrs. Lily Langtry, has issued a statement in reference to a report that the husband of the actress, when he was found wandering helplessly in the vicinity of Crowe, previous to his commitment to an asylum for the insane at Chester, had only a few copper coins in his pocket. The lawyer says since the separation of Mrs. Langtry from her husband she had paid Mr. Langtry regularly through her counsel an adequate allowance, and that as soon as Mrs. Langtry heard of Mr. Langtry's condition of health she forwarded to the authorities of Chester money sufficient for the immediate use of the sufferer.

The allowance paid Mr. Langtry, Sir George Lewis adds, was entirely irrespective of the income which he derived from from his property in Ireland.

The Grandest Remedy.

Mr. R. B. Greeve, merchant, of Chilhowie, Va., certifies that he had consumption, was given up to die, sought all medical treatment that money could procure, tried all cough remedies he could hear of, but got no relief; spent many nights sitting up in a chair; was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery, and was cured by use of two bottles. For past three years has been attending to business, and says Dr. King's New Discovery is the grandest remedy ever made, as it has done so much for him and also for others in his community. Dr. King's New Discovery is guaranteed for coughs, colds and consumption. It don't fail. Trial bottles free at C. E. Holton's drug store.

Bank of Louisburg Fails.

Louisburg, N. C., Oct. 19.—The Bank of Louisburg closed today, having assigned everything for the benefit of creditors. At present it is impossible to say what will be the returns to creditors.

This bank is a private institution, owned by W. P. Webb, and has a branch in Nashville, N. C. Both of these have closed their doors. The assignment was made to Mr. W. H. Ruffin, a member of the Louisburg bar. The dispensary recently established loses heavily by this failure. Mr. Webb had been here in the banking business about six years. About two years ago he opened a branch bank in Nashville.

Cabinet and Cuban Question.

Washington, Oct. 19.—The cabinet today discussed the new phase of the Cuban question. The strong demand for annexation now being made by influential citizens of the island may completely change the complexion of affairs. It is thought the demand for annexation will be followed by a strong movement for independence. In this connection congress will probably play an important part by early granting belligerent rights to the insurgents.

Senator Prichard Gone to Nebraska.

Senator Jeter C. Pritchard left Marshall yesterday for Nebraska on business connected with the civil service commission. He was accompanied by his secretary, W. S. Haynes, and his brother, Sheriff George Pritchard, who was wounded some time ago by a desperado whom he was trying to arrarrest.

A South Carolina Judge.

Judge Brawley, of South Carolina, is holding this term of federal court at Statesville by special appointment. It is said that there is a large array of lawyers, moonshiners and witnesses in attendance. The moonshiners are of the regulation stripe, wild and wooly mountaineers who are seldom seen in town except during federal court, and not then—if they can help it.

A Home Remedy

ENDORSED BY

Home People.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 5, 1895.

MRS. JOE PERSON,

Madam:—last year I was afflicted with some skin trouble affecting my feet, pronounced by my physician to be erythema. I was confined to my room for some two months and was lame for six months or more. After trying many remedies without effecting a cure, I resorted to your Remedy. After taking three bottles I began to improve, and before I had finished the fifth or sixth bottle I was practically free of the trouble. Once since then there recurred symptoms of its return, when I again resorted to your Remedy, and again the trouble disappeared. I believe I am indebted to you for relief from a very serious affliction.

Yours truly,
HAMILTON C. JONES.

BRIEF LOCAL MATTERS.

E. W. O'Hanlon, of Winston, was in the city last night.

Dr. W. A. Lash came down to the city on the noon train.

R. J. Reynolds, of Winston, was at the McAdoo this morning.

J. H. Holt, of Burlington, was a guest at the McAdoo today.

Dr. J. W. Griffith is building a two story house on Walnut street near his residence.

The sidewalk on N. Davie street is being filled in with dirt to correspond to the grade

Mr. D. Carl is improving his residence corner of Mebane and N. Davie street.

The meeting at Centenary church still continues, and there will be preaching tonight at 7:45. Everybody invited.

Now is the time to get bargains in ladies' gossamers. A limited number at a very low figure at Johnson & Dorsett's. See ad for price.

The Greensboro football team did not go to Chapel Hill today on account of the rain. Another date will be made when the weather is more favorable.

Remember the price of admission to see "Fabio Romani" at the Academy next Saturday night is 35 cents and 50 cents; children 25 cents. Tickets at Gardner's drug store.

When your fire won't burn, perhaps the coal is bad and perhaps it is not. Blow it up and see, and if it is bad coal Cunningham Bros. tell you in their ad what to do next.

Miss Alta Cozart, of Greensboro Female College, will recite at the organ fund concert to be given Friday night, and Miss Orr will sing. These two gifted and highly accomplished young ladies will add greatly to the enjoyment of this occasion.

The reception given by the management of the Keeley Institute at their new home on West Washington street and will begin at 3 p. m. tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Mowbray, the gifted orator from Philadelphia, will speak at 4 o'clock. The clergy especially invited.

The Farmers' warehouse has received a large shipment of tobacco, fifteen hogsheads, or about 12,000 pounds, from Pine Level, N. C. To reach Greensboro this tobacco had to come through Selma, Raleigh, Durham and towns in the Piedmont section. Greensboro is expanding in all directions and the "Bull City" must look to her laurels.

At the Academy Saturday Night.

Aiden Benedict's "Fabio Roman," which will be presented at the Academy of Music Saturday evening, October 23d, is a spectacular production of much merit, being an adaptation of Marie Correlli's novel, "The Vendetta."

The story of the play is sad, weird and interesting, with the dark passage of the sombre story are many enlivening scenes, that help to make the whole a pleasant entertainment. The promised realism comes at the end of the drama in the earthquake scene. The last act commences with a Mausoleum scene, which occupies the entire stage.

At the climax of the emotion the whole tomb sinks out of sight and reveals dwellings falling in ruins, the earth rocking and rent with fury, and fiery fissures, while Mt. Vesuvius, in the back ground, belches forth huge columns of fire and smoke and pours red streams of lava on the City of Naples at its feet.

Tickets on sale at Gardner's drug store. Admission 35 and 50 cts.; children 25 cents.

Mr. J. W. Beard Dead.

Mr. J. W. Beard, one of Kernersville's best citizens, died at the Twin-City Hospital, Winston, yesterday. He was 57 years old and was born near Midway, now Davidson county. He moved to Kernersville about twenty five years ago, and shortly afterward engaged in the mercantile business with Mr. J. C. Roberts.

For several years he was a traveling salesman for a large New York clothing house and was a successful salesman, drawing a salary, it is said, of $5,000 a year.

The deceased leaves a large estate. He was an honored member of the M. E. Church at Kernersville. The funeral was conducted from that church at Kernersville today.

NEXT YEAR'S WHEELS.

Some Things About the Wonderful Chainless Bicycle.

The '97 cycling season has not yet closed, but already there is a feeling among wheelmen that they really would like to know what will be the proper thing in wheels next year.

That a strong effort will be made to make the chainless wheel the popular mount for 1898 is undoubted, according to the New York Telegram, but a very limited number of manufacturers will be able to supply them. As a consequence, there will be a contest between the manufacturers and chainless wheels and those of the present day pattern.

Many of the latter realizing that the chain is unpopular on account of the care necessary to keep it in smooth running order and of the likelihood that a five-minute shower of rain or a short ride through sand will do more damage to the easy running qualities of the machine than can be remedied in hours, will look and are looking for an ally to assist them in the fight they must make against the chainless wheel next year.

What the popular price of wheels will be remains to be seen. The probabilities are there will be no single set price, but that the figures will range according to the kind of wheel offered. The issue will probably be squarely fought between the manufacturers of the chainless and the chain-covered wheels.

The Columbia Chainless is the last and highest form of bicycle development. It marks the utmost possibility of excellence and completeness under present conditions—under any conditions that are likely to arise.

Some of its points of superiority over a chain-driven wheel:

It is much easier to keep clean.

Every motion is positive—no back lash.

It has no links or teeth to "catch things."

It will go faster and further with less effort.

Its driving mechanism is always thoroughly lubricated.

Its motive parts are not affected by the weather—by rain, sleet, mud or dust.

Its bevel gears improve with use while a chain deteriorates from the first.

It saves repair money, work and worry, and increases the safety and delight of cycling.

It removes the one serious source of danger that every bicycler realizes, and substitutes confidence for dread.

The weak part of a chain and sprocket bicycle is the chain.

The bevel gears of a Columbia Chainless will outlast any other important part of the machine.

Public Reception at Blandwood.

Messrs. Gray and Osborne are to be heartily congratulated on the general results of their expensive and tasteful remodeling and refurnishing of this grand old homestead. It is indeed a model home for a Keelly Institute, or for a hotel or any other like purpose for which it might be desired. So many good citizens manifested a desire to inspect the same as it stands.

Col. Osborne invites all to come up next Thursday 21st, at 3 p. m. at 4 p. m. they will be addressed by Mr. Mowbray. Our word for it, a rarely gifted orator. O. 19 2t.
